Finding quality child care may be one of the most difficult decisions you have to make as a working parent. It takes time to visit programs and gather all the necessary information. Your first consideration should always be for your child's health and safety. You will breathe easier when you have found someone to hold, hug, and play with your child the same way you do. You want an experienced caregiver or teacher who will give your child the nurturing and the skills to learn, grow, and discover the world around them. Some questions that you should ask yourself when considering a child care provider are:

- ❖ Does the caregiver seem to really like children?
- ❖ Does the caregiver get down on each child's level to speak to the child?
- ❖ Are children greeted when they arrive?
- ❖ Is the caregiver trained in CPR/ first aid and early childhood education?
- ❖ Does the program keep up with the children's changing interests?
- ❖ Will the caregiver always be willing to answer your questions?
- ❖ Will the caregiver tell you what your child is doing every day?
- ❖ Are parents' ideas welcomed? Are there ways for you to get involved?
- ❖ Is there enough staff to serve the children?
- ❖ Is there a daily balance of play time, story time, activity time and nap
- ❖ Are the activities appropriate for each age group?
- ❖ Is there a variety of toys and learning materials for the number of children?
- ❖ Are toys clean, safe and within reach of the children?
- ❖ Does the program have a qualified child care health consultant on staff?
- ❖ Do you agree with the discipline practices?
- ❖ Do you hear the sounds of happy children?
- ❖ Are children comforted when needed?
- ❖ Is the program licensed or registered?
- ❖ Are surprise visits by parents encouraged?
- ❖ Is the atmosphere bright and pleasant?
- ❖ Is there a fenced-in outdoor play area with a variety of safe equipment?
- ❖ Can the caregiver see the entire playground at all times?
- ❖ Are there different areas for resting, quiet play and active play?
- ❖ Is there enough space for the children in all of these areas?

Star Rating System

On September 1, 2000, all North Carolina child care centers and homes were licensed on a star rating system. The rating is from one star (the lowest) up to five stars (the highest). This system reviews a child care provider's environment, education, and inspection history. Points are then assigned for each state approved item. The higher the total points then the higher the number of stars. It is important that parents think about the star rating of any child care provider that they are considering.
